If your pet does something good, reward them with a treat! This will let them know that this is how they should be behaving.